

BRAZILIANS TODAY

Deuteronomy 33:24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children;...Asher was blessed with having many children. Today, The Brazilian government estimates that the number of children and adolescents who work or sleep on the streets were approximately 25,000. Gangs have become one of the major issues in Brazil today!

Although all major cities and countries in the world experience poverty and crime, Brazil is particularly susceptible to these major social issue. The most common forms of crime in this country include mugging, robbing, kidnapping and gang violence. What makes matters worse, EVERY year Brazil's police are responsible for at least 2,000 deaths. The victims are generally recorded as having been "killed while resisting arrest" (the exact phrase used varies from state to state). Usually, few apart from the victims' families take much notice—even when the circumstances are highly suspicious, for example where the fatal wounds suggest the victim was running away when shot, or even kneeling. It is rare that a police officer is suspended for a killing; rarer still for one to be charged or tried (although on March 19th ten were found guilty of a sickening prison massacre in 1992) However, remember why this happen to our people! God allowed this to happen for being disobedient to His laws , and worship new gods like the statue of the fake Jesus, and the many gods of santeria. If we repent and keep the commandments, the tribe of Asher, along with the other 11 tribes of Israel will overcome the evil and the atrocities committed by our slave masters with the second coming of Jesus Christ , the BLACK MESSIAH !

THE TRUTH ABOUT BRAZIL

Brazilians are a strong people and according to the holy bible, they are from the tribe of Asher!

Genesis 49:1 And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days.

Genesis 49:[20] Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

"...his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.." means that Asher would be expert in making fancy pastries and elaborate foods, such as, Pão de queijo and Quindim. It also means the royal clothing Asher designs.

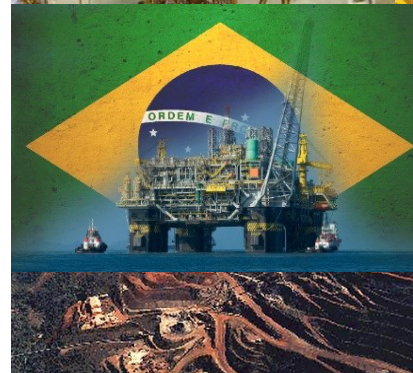

Asher was the 8th born son of Jacob. His name means "happy"; Genesis 30:13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher. The people of Brazil are found to be a happy people!

The word Barzel means Iron in Hebrew, where the word Brazil comes from!

Deuteronomy 33:24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil. 25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

Brazil is known to be very rich in both Iron and oil today.

When Brazil went into Slavery

According to Deuteronomy 28: 15-68 , Israel was warned that if we do not keep the commandments God had given them, curses fall upon us. Deuteronomy 28:49 The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand;

50 A nation of fierce countenance, which shall not regard the person of the old, nor shew favour to the young:

Slavery in Brazil began with the first Portuguese settlement established in 1532. Later, colonists were heavily dependent on indigenous labor during the initial phases of settlement to maintain the subsistence economy, and natives were often captured by expeditions called bandeiras, originating in São Paulo. The importation of slaves from the Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade began midway through the 16th century, but the enslavement of indigenous peoples continued well into the 17th and 18th centuries.

The conversion of Brazil, beginning about the middle of the sixteenth century, was brought about by the Jesuits, after whom came the Franciscans, and these were followed by the Benedictines. Tomé de Sousa, first Governor General of Brazil, brought the first group of Jesuits to the colony.

Slave labour and trade were essential for the economy of Brazil and other American colonies, and the Jesuits usually did not object the enslavement of our people.

Deuteronomy 32 :17 They sacrificed to demons , not to God ; To gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came up, whom your fathers feared not .

The Jesuits replaced pagan gods with new devils of the Catholic Church, like the statue of Christ the redeemer in Rio de Janeiro, built in 1931.

After the damage was done

Psalms 83:3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

The Portuguese, French, Dutch, British, Spanish, etc., all had a hand in our captivity! We were made to forget that we are the Israelites that the bible speaks of!

Deuteronomy 28:47 Because thou servedst not the LORD thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shalt thou serve thine enemies which the LORD shall send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until he have destroyed thee.

The slavery of Anastacia

Hosea 7:[8] Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people: Ephraim is a cake not turned. Ephraim are the Puerto Ricans today, but this scripture represents Ephraim as all of the Northern Kingdom of Israel!

Skin color was a significant factor in determining the status of African descendants born in Brazil: lighter-skinned slaves had both higher chances of manumission as well as better social mobility if they were granted freedom, making it important in the identity of both Brazilian-born slaves and ex-slaves. Racism in Brazil has been a major issue ever since the colonial era and the slave era imposed by Portuguese settlers, which led to a persistent marginalization of the black population in the country.
